

interrogatories, fifty (50) requests for admission, and twenty-five (25) requests for production are allowed by each party to any other party. Any party may take the deposition of any witness identified. All depositions are limited to four hours, unless extended by mutual agreement.

The termination date for discovery is July 15, 2016, and discovery shall not be reopened, except by an order of the Court upon a showing of good cause. This deadline shall be construed to require that discovery be completed on or before the above date. Service of interrogatories or requests for production shall be considered timely only if the responses are due prior to the deadline. A notice to take deposition shall be considered timely only if the deposition takes place prior to the deadline. The pendency of dispositive motions shall not stay discovery. Any motions related to discovery shall be filed no later than July 22, 2016.

Defendants shall file and serve any motion for summary judgment by August 15, 2016. Plaintiffs shall file and serve a combined brief featuring any response to Defendants' summary judgment motion and any cross-motion for summary judgment by September 14, 2016. Defendants shall file a combined brief featuring their reply as to their summary judgment motion and any response to Plaintiffs' cross-motion for summary judgment by September 29, 2016. Plaintiffs shall file a final reply as to their cross-motion for summary judgment by October 14, 2016. Any pretrial motions filed after the above dates shall be considered untimely in the discretion of the Court.

If documents are attached as exhibits to motions, affidavits, or briefs, those parts of the exhibits that counsel want to bring to the attention of the Court must be highlighted in accordance with D.N.M.LR-Civ. 10.6.
