STATUS REPORT

In their Joint Motion to Vacate Settings and Deadlines (ECF No. 3373), the parties informed the Court that resolution of this subfile action was imminent but if the parties could not submit a proposed Consent Order within 30 days of the Court’s order vacating deadlines and hearings, the parties would notify the Court of the status of the efforts to resolve this subfile action.

The United States informs the Court that the parties have agreed to the form and contents of a proposed Consent Order and they are currently circulating the final proposed Consent Order amongst party representatives for signatures. The United States believes that the signed proposed Consent Order will be filed within 10 days. In the event any unreasonable delay occurs in taking this final action, the United States will further advise the Court.

Respectfully submitted this 23rd day of June 2017.
